

a group of countries under a single ruler	empire	Ancient Greece civilisation spanned thousands of years from 2200BC — 146 BC archaeologists use vases, statues, artefacts to find out about the past.	historical sources	The Greeks believed the gods controlled their lives. If the gods were unhappy, they would punish them.
and powerfully expands the	shrine	336 — 323 BC Alexander the Great is King and Greek empire as far as Egypt and India.
altar for worship	Democracy	The 12 main gods lived on Mount Olympus. Zeus was King of the gods. wife — Hera.
'ruled by the people'	produced a	Democracy was first developed in A. Greece this ancient temple can still be seen today	1. Eklesia	The start of democracy in Ancient Greece started around 508 BC. Cleisthenes first produced a decisions were made by majority vote	Part heimon	The symbol of Athenian democracy.
There were 3 different parts to the ancient Greek system of democracy.	debate	Proposing and opposing sides put forward arguments for and against a motion. Voting follows

2. Dikasteria	Britain today.	A jury was used to deal with crimes. Trial by jury — still used in
House of Commons	3. The Boule	Decided what issues to put forward for a vote. Members of Parliament discuss issues
2 sides discuss a subject	debate	Proposing and opposing sides put forward arguments for and against a motion. Voting follows reject/ignore send away.	Ostracise	Once a year, the ancient Greeks voted to ostracise someone for 10 years if they were a threat to democracy